

THE 59 BILLIONAIRES OF WALL STREET SOUTH

Most of our 59 billionaires are actively engaged in the finance and investments industry.

Spotlights

Abigail Johnson | Ranked 6th

Johnson has been CEO of Fidelity Investments since 2014 and chairman since 2016. She owns 28.5% of the firm, which manages $4.5 trillion in assets as of September 2023. In 2018, she led Fidelity to launch a platform for institutional trading of bitcoin and ether.

Henry Kravis | Ranked 10th

Henry Kravis, co-founder of KKR, led with a notable 56% rise, reaching $11.7 billion. Kravis and KKR have reshaped finance with leveraged buyouts, utilizing substantial debt for acquiring and restructuring companies.

Avram Glazier | Ranked 54th

Billionaire status achieved! Let's give a warm welcome to Avram Glazier, newly added to the 2024 Forbes billionaire list with a net worth of $1.7 billion. He co-owns the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Manchester United!

Stephen Schwarzman | Ranked 2nd

In 2024, the Palm Beach billionaire's net worth surged to $38.8 billion, up $11 billion from last year. He founded and leads the Blackstone Group, now the world's largest buyout firm with over $1 trillion in assets and operations in PBC.

Julia Koch

The Wealthiest billionaire in Palm Beach County, Koch has a net worth of $64.3 billion and leads by a whopping $25.5 billion. In 2023, she established the Julia Koch Family Foundation, which supports transformative initiatives in healthcare, education, and the arts. Most recently, the Julia Koch Foundation donated $75 million to NYU Langone Health to build the Julia Koch Family Ambulatory Care Center in West Palm Beach. The facility will offer a wide range of clinical services and represents one of the largest donations ever made to a healthcare provider in Palm Beach County.

Nearly 75% of these billionaires saw their net worth rise this year, with five of them gaining at least $5 billion. Among the 59 billionaires, 14 saw their net worth increase by at least 20% from 2023 to 2024.

Team Palm Beach

Robert Wood Johnson IV
New York Jets owner

Robert Kraft
New England Patriots owner

David Tepper
Carolina Panthers owner

Jonathan Tisch
New York Giants co-owner

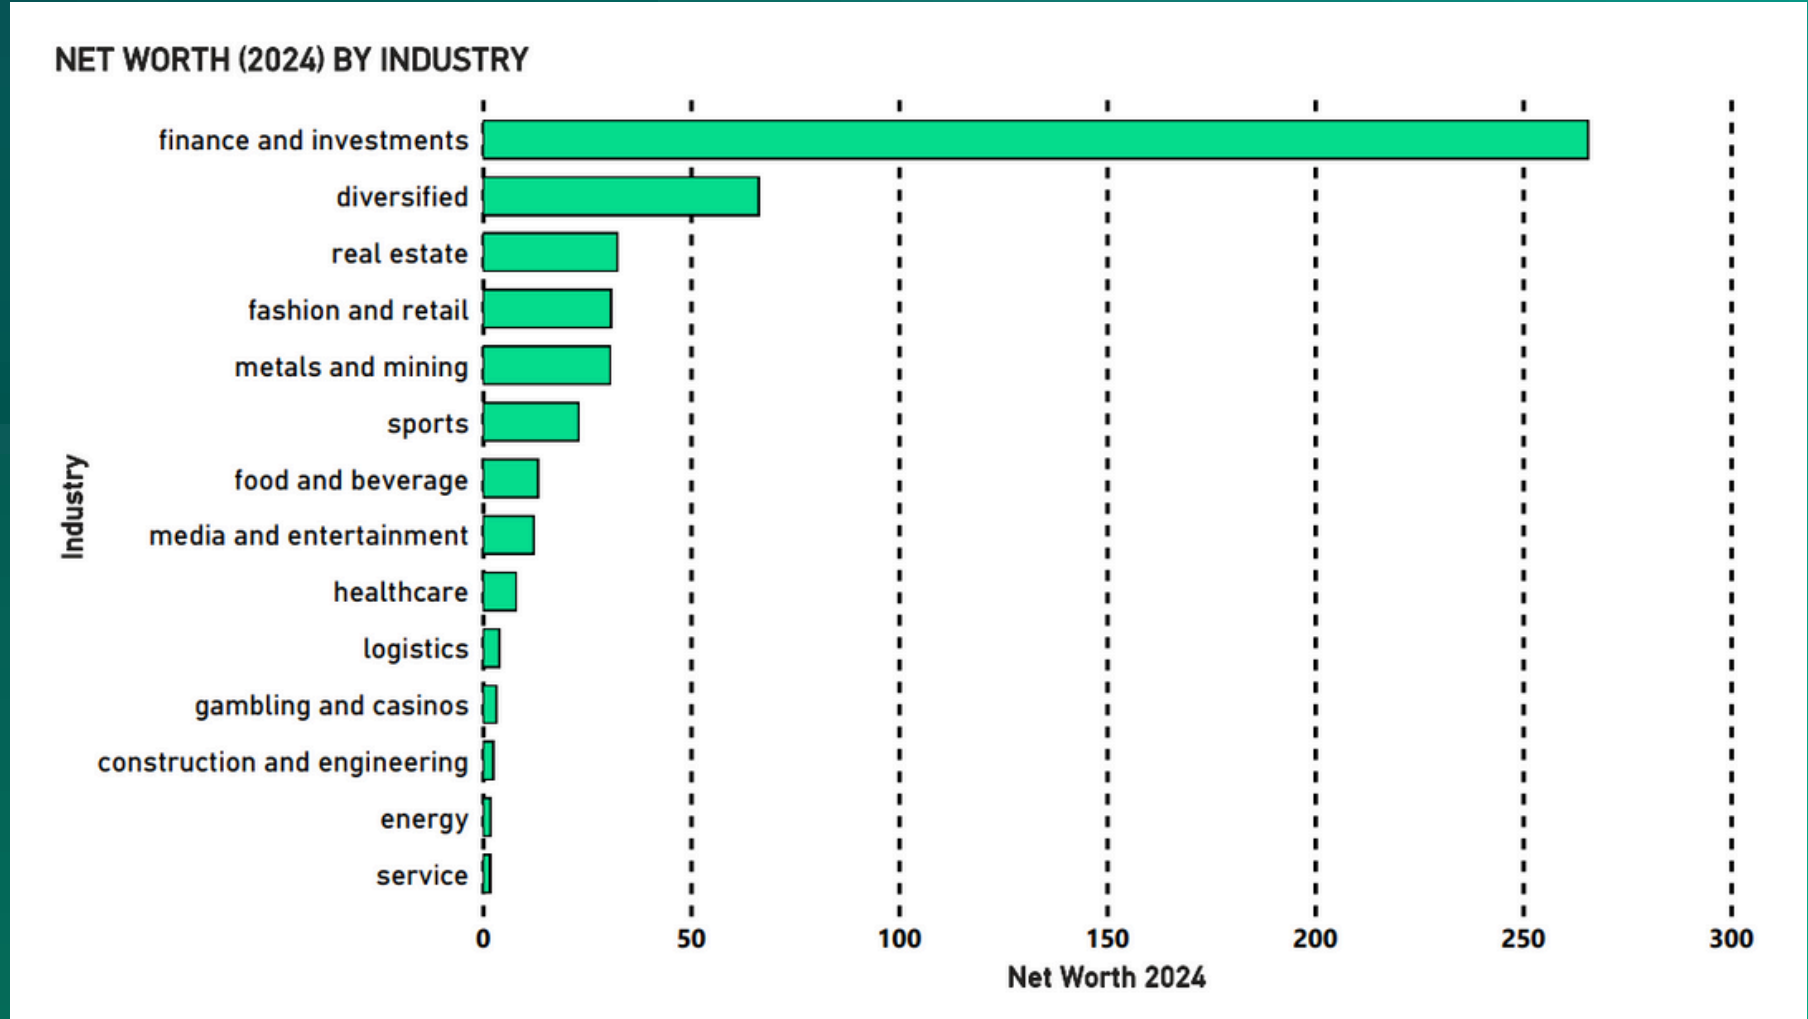

John Middleton
Philadelphia Phillies co-owner

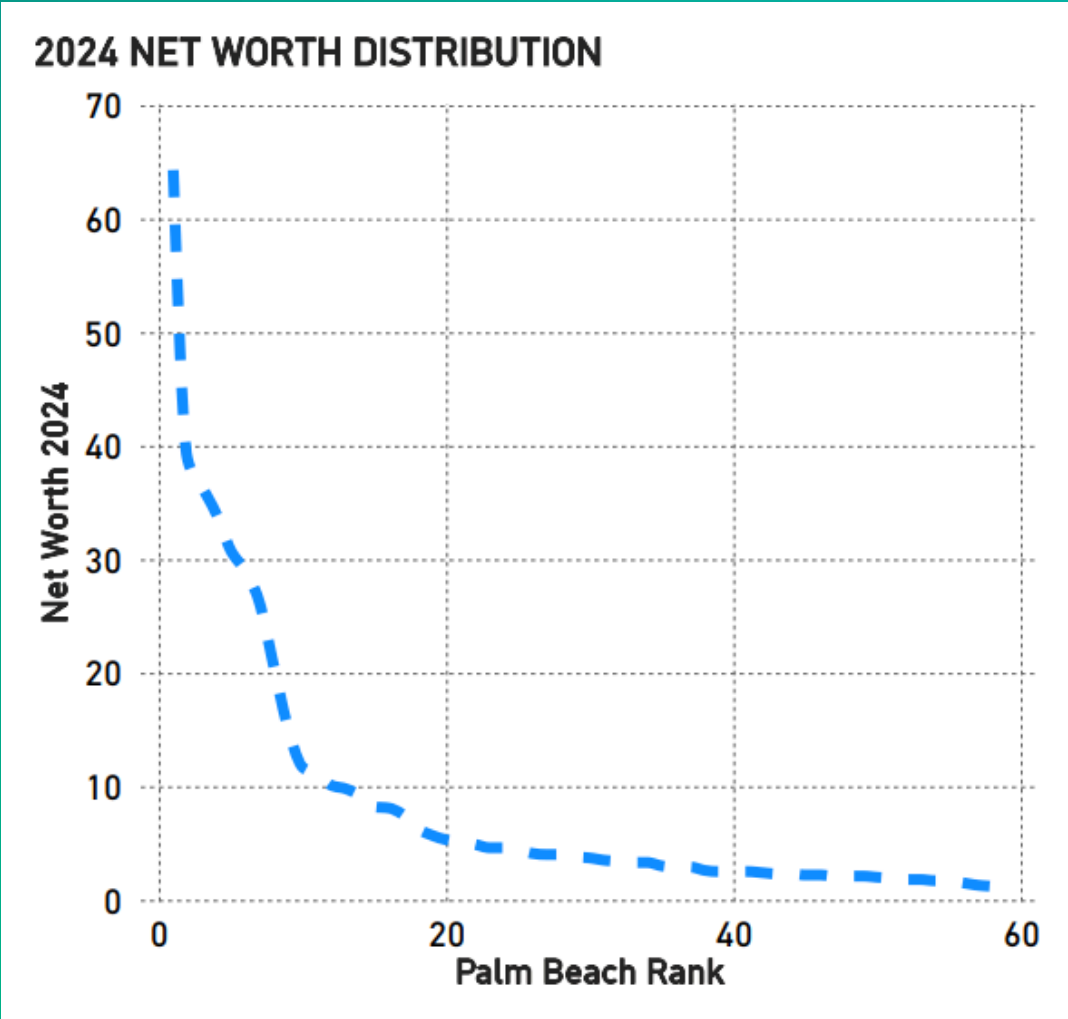

Stephen Ross
Miami Dolphins owner

Dan Gilbert
Cleveland Cavaliers owner

Across various industries, these affluent individuals collectively possess a total net worth of $497.5 billion, with the wealthiest among them involved in finance and investments, real estate, fashion and retail, metals and mining, or spanning multiple sectors.

The top 20 billionaires boast a net worth starting at $5 billion, with the top 10 exceeding $10 billion each.

